Orinda Zoning Maps Published This Issue

County Planners Send Proposal to Supervisors

Published for the first time, maps showing the proposed zoning of Orinda are printed in this issue of the ORINDA SUN.

Also in this issue is the official legal notice, prepared by the County Clerk, calling for a public hearing on the zoning of the area included in the Orinda Union School District as recommended by the County Planning Commission. The hearing will be held before the Board of Supervisors in their chambers, Hall of Records, Martinez, at 11 a.m. Monday, November 22.

At that time opinions of Orinda residents may be heard on the proposed zoning of Orinda. Protests or statements on the recommendations of the County Planning Commission will be considered.

THREE MAPS

The three maps in this issue present the recommendations of the County planners. The planning staff, headed by Thomas

Heaton, and the County Planning Commission have been studying Orinda zoning for about a year and public hearings have been held. Orinda residents, land developers and organizations have presented their views at the public hearing, by letters and delegations.

Two controversies were apparent from the beginning: One was over the requested small business section at Moraga Highway and Glorietta Boulevard. The Planning Commission ruled against permitting the business section.

The other problem was whether to zone certain areas RS (residential suburban with minimum lot area of 10,000 square feet) or RA (transition residential agricultural with a minimum of one-half acre).

WHO WANTS WHAT

Local neighborhood improvement associations seek the RA zoning, even though their present lots in many cases are less than one-half acre. This is to protect current property values and to prevent subdividing of larger lots in the area into smaller units.

Also involved is the size of lots in acreage now being subdivided, with the land developers advocating RS, while Orinda residents propose establishment of larger sites.

SUBURBAN ZONE

Certain areas asked for S zoning (Suburban with a minimum lot of one acre).

The recommendations of the Planning Commission in some cases followed the requests of the residents and in other instances did not.

In a letter to the ORINDA SUN, H. Russell Griffith, assistant planning technician, stated, "It was the opinion of the County Planning Commission, when recommending this proposed zoning plan for the Orinda District, to propose the zoning, especially in the residential districts, according to the characteristics of the districts as they now exist."

THE MORAGA SIDE

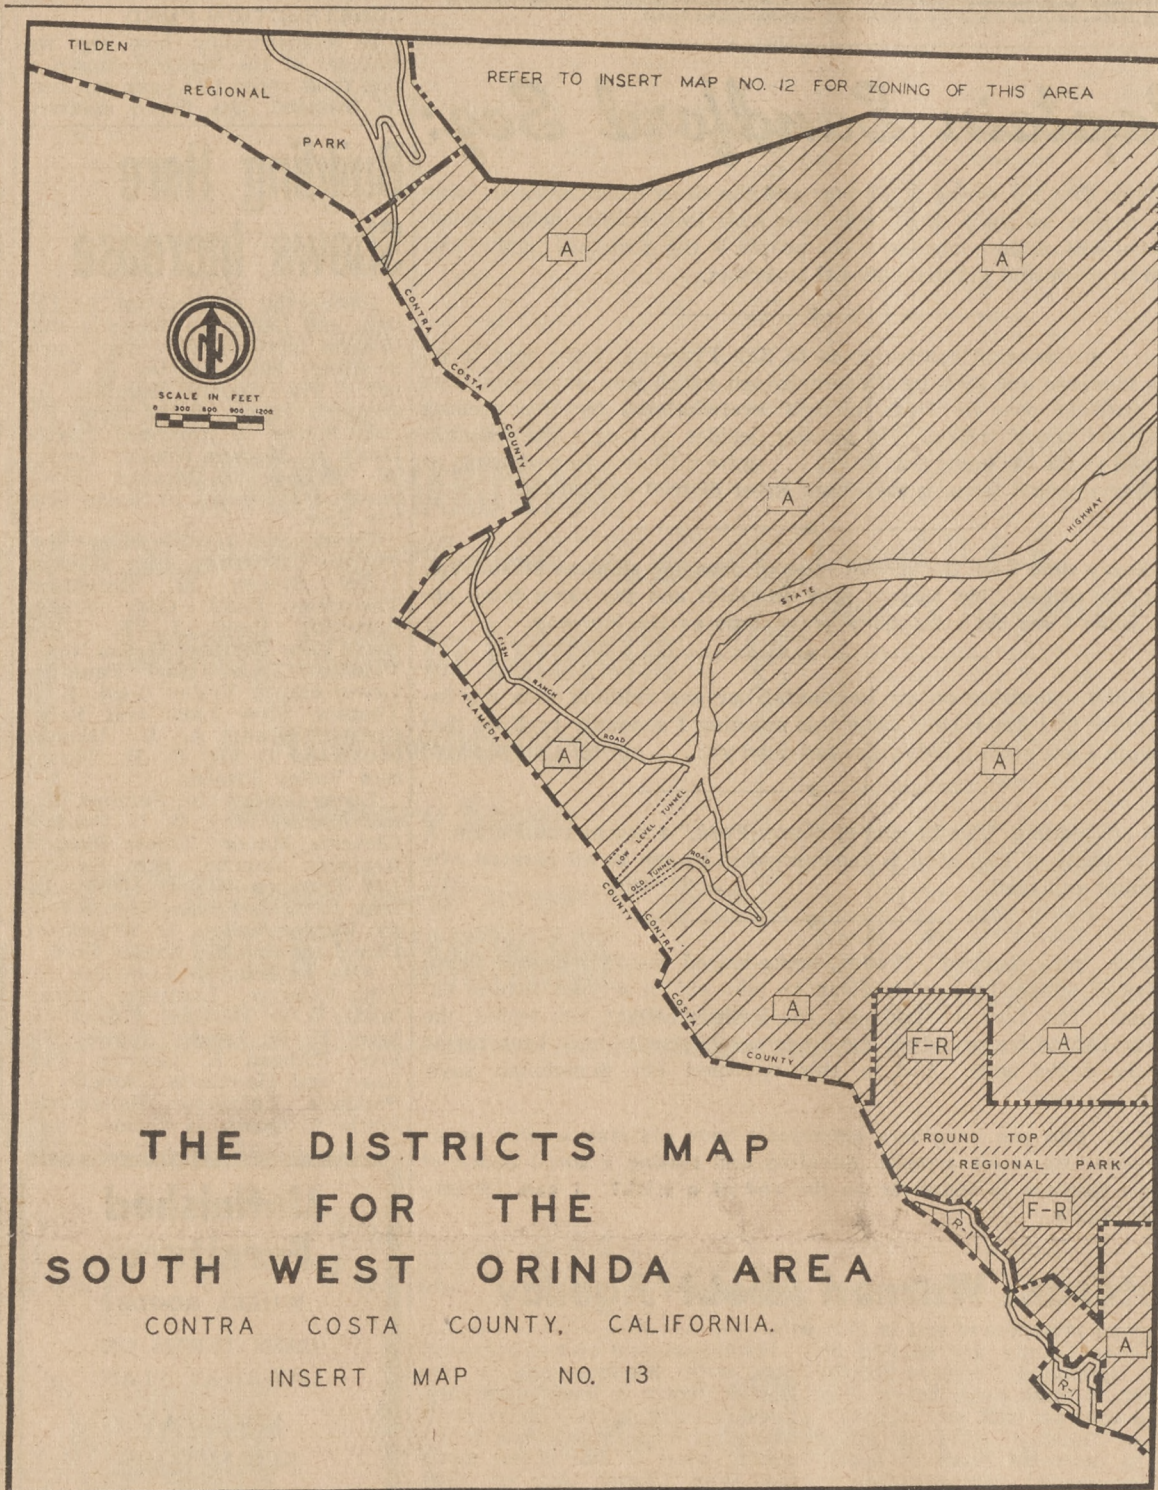

On the Moraga side, for example, Moraga Estates, Moraga Woodlands, Moraga Knolls and Lost Valley Estates are proposed for a one-half acre minimum, with the remaining area recommended as an RS district (10,000 square feet).

The latter includes all the new subdivisions in the area of Glorietta Boulevard and along Rheem Boulevard and the land southwest of Moraga Highway and Glorietta Boulevard north to the Crossroads business section. Moraga Del Rey lands south of the P. G. and E. are also RS.

VILLAGE SIDE

On the Village side, all four residential zones are recommended, from R1 (minimum 5,000 square feet) to Suburban (one acre). Hacienda del Orinda subdivisions, including the golf course and country club areas, are proposed as RS. As requested, Minerinda, Canyon Ranch, Orinda Uplands and Fairway Acres have been designated Suburban.

A large part of undeveloped Orinda lands will be zoned Agricultural. The present county ordinance provides that agricultural lands, when subdivided, must be cut up into lots one-quarter acre or larger.

Insert Map No. 13, "The Districts Map for the South West Orinda Area" includes all of the land west of Oak Springs subdivision to the County line. This is all proposed as an Agricultural district with the exception of Round Top Regional Park and a small subdivision on the County line near Skyline Drive. (See pages 4 and 5 for large maps).

Absentee Ballots Make Hospital Vote Uncertain

Whether the county-wide hospital proposal has been defeated will not be known for certain until next Tuesday when the large number of the county's absentee ballots will be opened and counted in Martinez.

Thus, the public hearing before the Board of Supervisors Monday on Central Contra Costa county's petitions for formation of its own hospital district will probably be postponed until the final results are known.

SMALL MARGIN

Results of Tuesday's voting finds the county-wide hospital plan, Proposition C on the ballot, defeated by a small margin of 753 votes.

Yes — 26,827
No — 27,580.

But there are 2,241 absentee ballots, which by law cannot be counted until Tuesday. Some may even arrive in the County offices later, if they bear an early enough postmark being mailed from distant points.

Not all of the absentee ballots will be concerned with the hospital plan, as voters in Concord and the Pittsburg hospital area did not have Proposition C on the ballot. However, most of the ballots are from the district voting on the measure.

DEFEAT EXPECTED

Opponents of the plan are not certain of victory, although most observers believe that the results now on hand offer sufficient evidence of its defeat. An extremely high percentage of the absentee ballots in favor of the county-wide hospital district is needed to turn the tide.

The measure was soundly trounced by voters in the Central Contra Costa area. At presstime, a detailed breakdown of votes on the proposal is not available.

ON THE BALLOT

In other races, Lafayette and Orinda voted solid Republican, for

Mason Removed As Engineer

John Mason, resident engineer of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, last week was relieved from his post, according to the District Engineer, Clyde C. Kennedy.

Richard Kennedy was placed in charge October 28 and he said that he is serving as resident engineer temporarily, as his permanent position is assistant to his father, Clyde C. Kennedy.

Mason was an employee of the Kennedy firm, which is hired to do the Sanitary District's engineering on a fee basis. The District's Directors do not hire the resident engineer, Kennedy pointed out.

No reason for the action was announced.

Orindans, Inc. Plans Election

A nominating committee to elect a slate for next year was appointed at the meeting of Orindans, Inc. Monday night at the Orinda Community Church at 8 p.m.

After discussing building restrictions, the group planned to protest a proposed residential building on Moraga Highway on the grounds that the area is too small. It was understood that interim zoning would prohibit the use of less than one-half acre lots for residents, C. A. Coggins said.

Appointed on the nominating committee were Stanley Allen, chairman, Arthur Henry and Ed Fowler.

Monte Vista Association Continues To Oppose Las Vegas Rd. Extension

The Monte Vista Improvement Association at its semi-annual meeting last week voted to continue to oppose the extension of Las Vegas Road through to Charles Hill Road.

Members, all residents of Charles Hill, discussed whether or not to withdraw their objections to the long-sought proposal, which would

Public Hearing On Hospital Plan May Be Postponed

The public hearing Monday on this area's petition for formation of a Central Contra Costa Hospital District will probably be postponed until the final vote on the county-wide hospital plan is known, Supervisor Jack Cummings told the SUN yesterday. The hearing was scheduled before the Board of Supervisors for November 8.

Agreeing that no action can be taken until the results of the balloting on Proposition C are known, Robert Pedder said he will ask Supervisor Cummings to continue the hearing. Pedder has been retained by a group of interested citizens of Lafayette to oppose this area's inclusion in the county district.

The final vote will be known on Tuesday or Wednesday when the absentee ballots are counted. (See adjoining story.)

TO MEET SUNDAY

The Central Contra Costa Hospital Association will meet Sunday morning at 9 o'clock for a breakfast meeting at the Las Palmas Hotel in Walnut Creek, according to Neill Cornwall. The organization will make plans to seek the establishment of a local district, if the defeat of the county district is confirmed.

The public is urged to attend this meeting, Cornwall stated. This organization for several years worked for a local hospital district, but at the last minute its directors voted to support the county plan, Hamilton Plan A.

LETTERS TO SUPERVISORS

The Supervisors last Monday received three batches of letters signed by hundreds of residents in the area asking to be excluded from the county-wide district.

Dr. Charles H. Hart of Walnut Creek and C. C. Baum of Lafayette presented the protest letters. The Supervisors discussed them fully, ordered the clerk to acknowledge them and to place them on file.

HEARING PLANS

Baum has stated that Robert Pedder, himself and a group of local district people will attend the Supervisors' meeting, but at that time it was thought the results would definitely be known in time to permit action. Until it is definitely established whether or not the proposition passes, it is likely the hearing will have to be postponed.

If the proposal finally fails to pass, the local group will ask to form their own district. The petition for this is already on record and the measure could be placed on the ballot in December's special election, which will deal with formation of a county junior college district.

If the Hamilton Plan passes, plans are indefinite but the Central Contra Costa adherents will fight for exclusion.

Moraga Woodland Directors Meet

The Moraga Woodlands Association Directors, meeting Monday night at the home of Gilbert Earle, reviewed plans of houses to be constructed in the area.

Plans reviewed were submitted by G. G. Pearce and William Powell.

The general membership meeting to be held the first Monday in January was considered.

give several hundred Orinda families access to Charles Hill Road. This would save them several miles of travel to the highway, and would offer better fire protection and school bus transportation to both areas, according to the proponents.

The Association went on record to oppose the connecting of the roads. Letters to this effect are being sent to the Orinda Association, which favors the extension, and to the East Bay Municipal Utility District. The district owns the narrow strip of land between the two roads and until recently had declined to sell the land so as not to become involved in "neighborhood disagreements."

PRESENTS ALTERNATIVE

The Monte Vista group, however, voted to support any movement to construct a new road from the Las Vegas Road area through the undeveloped East Bay M.U.D. lands to the highway. It was pointed out that a natural grade exists with a fire break already cut through where a new road could be built.

Several years ago residents of Charles Hill and of the Las Vegas Road area discussed this possibility and together walked over the proposed route.

Two weeks ago the SUN disclosed that negotiations between Supervisor Jack Cummings and the Utility District for the purchase of the land had begun. This followed an open letter from this newspaper to John Longwell, general manager of East Bay M.U.D., asking what policy the District intends to follow on this question.

THE OTHER SIDE

Opposition comes primarily from a few families living at the foot of Charles Hill Road, on the basis that the road is narrow and dangerous and its intersection with the highway is extremely dangerous. Adding new traffic to the road merely increases the dangers, they point out.

At the lengthy meeting conducted by Dr. R. G. Van Nuys, president, the members voted to repaint the old and post new street warning signs — "Children at Play", etc. They also decided to send a delegate to the Central Contra Costa Association of Improvement Clubs.

Harmony Night Date Postponed

Harmony Night has been postponed from November 12 to December 10 because many students participating in the contest have the mumps, Mike Murphy announced this week.

Two of the visiting Barber Shop quartets were unable to make the November 12 date, a fact which further influenced the Orinda Barber Shop Quartet in postponing the contest.

Orinda Grammar School students participated in the second session of auditions Saturday morning at the School. Six of the musical contestants will be chosen to perform as part of the Harmony Night program.

Out of the six participants on Harmony Night judges will select one as winner of the Barbershop musical scholarship.

Cub Meeting Is Tonight

Orinda Cub Pack meets tonight at 8 p.m. in the Grammar School. Awards and entertainment are on the program.

Bob Cat awards will be made at this second meeting of the year.

A parents meeting will be held while the kids are seeing a movie. Plans for the Christmas party will be discussed.

What to Do Next Sunday -- Try it Once

By Rev. GEORGE A. MILLER and Rev. HARRY E. SHANER

Lafayette has seven thousand people within its Post Office radius. The proportion of able-bodied is above average as there are few old and infirm. What do they do on Sunday? Louder, please!

Some stay at home, for good reasons. Some take to the woods. Some entertain visitors. And some go to church. How many? Well, the total attendance of all local churches last Sunday was around 225 people, 300 in Sunday School. Perhaps a good number attended some church beyond the tunnel or elsewhere, who knows?

Population, 7000. Church attendance, local 225, total meebby 400. Subtract babies and mothers who care for them, sick people and the unavoidably detained for whatever good reason, Grand total accounted for, half the population at most. Remainder unaccounted for, 3,500.

There are nice people who have never discovered that it is fun to go to church. That may not be the basic reason, but it's true. Hang around the vestibule any Sunday at any lively church and listen. Try it yourself.

Where go to Church? At any Church where you find fellowship, release from tension, help when you need it, light in the dark places and a meaning for life and its tangles.

Lafayette has two Church buildings and four Church organizations. Take your choice. Try this experiment. Go to some church, hold out your right hand among the people before and after service and see what will happen to you. Smile when you do it and double your money. There is enough variety among the churches in Lafayette so that you can find one that fits.

When you are sick, you lose no time in seeing a doctor. When you have a legal case you consult a lawyer. When you have a personal problem that worries you, try taking it up with a minister. There are five of them here, give them a trial, go and talk it over and you will feel better.

County School Enrollment Up

School enrollment in Contra Costa has passed the 52,000 mark and is nearly triple that of 1940, figures from the office of County Superintendent B. O. Wilson disclosed today.

The total enrollment in all schools is 52,661, compared to 19, 528 at the beginning of the decade. The figure for 1947 was 48,317.

High school and junior high attendance in October of this year was 15,581, up from 14,867 last year. In the elementary schools the increase was from 33,450 to 37,080.

Schools with the greatest increase were: Antioch-Live Oak Unified, from 1371 last year to 1585; Concord, 1617 to 1730; Danville Union, 274 to 323.

Lafayette enrollment jumped from 705 to 902; Orinda Union, 488 to 599; Pittsburg Unified, 1535 to 1671; Pleasant Hill, 576 to 943; and Walnut Creek, 1066 to 1254.

GRANDCHILD

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Andfinsen of Hough Ave. are proud of their grandson born to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allan Sangalli, on October 26 at St. Joseph's Hospital in San Francisco.

The baby Robert Allan Sangalli Jr. weighed 8 lbs. at birth. It is their first grandchild.

Captain Sandford Sez:

Now that the voting is all over and the Government officials have been chosen, we shall all of us in true American fashion acknowledge that the will of the majority of the people is the dominant factor, and so on to more and greater national successes.

A Canadian rancher goes to San Francisco from here to do some business and pick up a fountain pen which was being repaired. The business done he finds himself overwhelmed by the evening homeward bound traffic. He quickly decides to forget the fountain pen and heads for home and safety... quite different from driving on a 700 acre wheat farm in the Peace River district of Canada.

Every time I see the serried rows of decaying ships at Suisun Bay I get the willies. My tummy goes all phui and the same thing applies when I see old automobile graveyards on the highway.

While exercising on my horizontal bar and fiddling with my Indian clubs and dumb-bells early this morning I suddenly realized that although I am getting older, I'm not dead yet... not by a darn sight!

I am reading "The Legend of Henry Ford," a recent publication. A careful study of this book is recommended by me to all persons who can think and read.

This "pink-cheeked", "ruddy, white-haired, weather-beaten Banty rooster of advancing age" is about to take off on a trout fishing expedition. The flies are laid out, the leaders bought and tested, the waders, fishing boots and all the other paraphernalia have been tossed into the duffel bags. And so this spavined old Scotchman says, "Good-bye now."

P.S. Can you imagine a supposedly sane old man wading in ice cold water up to his armpits, dangling and tossing a small bunch of colored feathers in the river on the end of a stick? I can. Pretty rugged, sez I.

Veterans Warned About 'Agency'

Former prisoners of war in Contra Costa County are advised by J. W. Hammond, Veterans Service Officer, to think twice before they sign a contract with any "committee" or "agency" offering, for a fee, to represent them in applying for special compensation to which they are entitled by Federal law.

Hammond said that an organization with headquarters in the East is known to have representatives in some parts of California who offer to assist veterans in collecting what is due them under the War Claims Act of 1948, charging 10 per cent of the amount collected as a fee.

Acalanes Trustees Map Building Plans

In an attempt to keep abreast of steep enrollment rising ahead, the Acalanes union high school district board of trustees in a special meeting early last week mapped further plant expansion plans.

Because eleven months since bond election in October, 1947, which finances present expansion failed to provide the facilities needed this fall in time, the board and superintendent determined to begin immediately planning for housing demands which will be felt by September, 1950. Taking action now, the administration will thus be allowing two years for projected construction.

CONSTRUCTION FUND

In redetermining how the remainder of the $540,000 construction fund voted last year can best be invested, the board deferred indefinitely the building of an auditorium and a cafeteria building when bids received at the meeting showed that the cost would be prohibitive. Instead, the available funds will be used for more urgently needed units of an instructional type: a girls' gymnasium, extension of three classroom wings, and possibly the expansion of the shop unit if demand for industrial training requires.

Part of the present capital-outlay fund must also be held in reserve for purchase as soon as possible of a site for a second high school, which will be needed by 1952. Neil M. Parsons, district superintendent, pointed out. Having begun their search for another campus early this year, trustees are now in the final stages of acquiring a 22-acre tract in Walnut Creek.

CLASSES READY

At the same time, the board set the week of November 15 as the occupancy date of the new classroom and shop wings, which they had originally hoped to have ready by September. The new date represents a two-week postponement from the November 1 moving day previously set. The delay is the result of the shortages of materials and labor.

Building Here Shows Increase

Residential construction in Orinda and Lafayette shows a continuous increase with many new dwellings being started in October. The County Building Inspector's report shows three Orinda homes in progress: Harold Booth in Moraga Knolls; George W. McLean in Moraga Woodlands; J. H. Helms, 91 Sleepy Hollow Lane.

Twenty-two residences are listed in Lafayette: Phil Hickox, Third Street; M. Robertson, Thompson Road; Gary Brown, Springhill Road; L. E. Miles, Crest View Terrace; Dallas Noble, Valente Circle; Karl Paulding, Lower Happy Valley Road; E. S. Thomas, Stow Lane and Reliez Station Road; A. R. Winans, Mosswood Drive; F. B. Taylor, Sun Valley Estates.

Lucas-Genessi Co., Sanford Way and Market Way; W. G. Fulcher, Glenside Manor; Ernest Blasotti, Acalanes Ranch; Tom Sawyer, Las Trampas Manor; Henry Antons, Glenside Estates; Alvan Purdy, Hidden Valley; D. Whitehead, Pine Lane and Mt. Diablo Blvd.

Also building in Lafayette are John Electre, Lafayette Homelands; G. W. Zurilgen, Sunset Village; H. W. Landes, Sunset Village; Richard E. Genelly, Ride Road and Hawthorn; Amelia J. Paddock, Lafayette Homelands; Merle A. Quait, 14 Colina Court.

Wilson Talks On Assessments

Discussing school assessments and how much certain localities pay, B. O. Wilson, Contra Costa County School Superintendent, gave the Real Estate Mart an insight into educational finance at its regular breakfast meeting, recently, El Nido Rancho. Wilson also pointed out to his real estate audience that subdividers and builders should take care of the school problems of residents before they start anything else. E. J. "Bud" Carey Jr. presided at the meeting.

First Acalanes Assembly Dance To Be Held at Veterans Hall Sat.

Mrs. Dwight Baldwin, chairman of the Acalanes Assemblies, announces that the dances for the coming year will be held in the Veterans' Hall, Lafayette, the first Saturday of the month from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The first assembly dance this year on Saturday is a sport dance. Arrangements are being made by Acalanes senior class students attending the assemblies with John Klauder and Nancy Brooks chairmen for the seniors.

Again this year, as previously, the dances are under the able direction of Mr. John D. Preston and Mrs. Clifford H. Bissell with all plans, special features, decorations etc., being arranged by a student committee assisted by Mrs. Lonie Bee and Mrs. Melvin Jacobus.

Members of the student committee are John Klauder and Nancy Brooks, seniors; Marshall Freeman and Nancy Carlson, juniors;

Carola Courtright and Tony Biggs sophomores; Ann Seulberger and Mike Clement, freshmen.

Sponsors for the opening dance are Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Iversen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nave of Walnut Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ford of Lafayette, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Courtright of Orinda.

All the Way to SF But Show Folded

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Squire had planned for some time to attend the performance in San Francisco of "The Blue Danube" and had bought tickets accordingly.

So Wednesday evening a week ago they went over to see the show only to find, after reaching the doors, the show had folded up the Sunday before. They then attended the Jerry Lester show "Raze on the Roof" and had a laugh at their own expense. After this they will read the papers.

Phone or write us your news: Orinda 2118 or P. O. Box 147; or Lafayette 4452 or P. O. Box 806.

Urge Donations To Scout Fund

Supporters of Boy and Girl Scouting in the Diablo area are urged to assist the current fund drive by making their contributions directly to their area chairmen, according to chairman T. K. Ulyatt of Lafayette.

Bad breaks in the weather, which opened and closed October with rain; increased population scattered widely through the area which in turn required a magnified force of canvassers; strike conditions in Contra Costa County plus the natural lag of pre-election weeks — these have combined to slow down progress of a drive that must succeed, Ulyatt says.

Hence contributors are asked to make their donations to the Boy and Girl Scout Fund in the area directly to the community chairmen without waiting for block canvassers to call upon them.

Community chairmen assisting Ulyatt are: John Rasmussen, Alamo and Danville; A. L. Studebaker, Lafayette; Mrs. John Gompertz, Orinda; Leo Rahill, Walnut Creek and Joe Shockley, Ygnacio.

FAMILY GET-TOGETHER

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers and son Curtis were made happy this week by the arrival from Wisconsin of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers Sr. It has been some time since the two families have been together.

Celebration of Girl Scout Week Emphasizes Values of Scouting

Celebration of Girl Scout Week this week calls for a new emphasis on the values of Girl Scouting to the young women of Contra Costa County Mrs. Donald Krotz, Juliette Low Chairman, pointed out. It is the time also when new energy is needed to complete projects of the year, such as Clothes for Friendship, Mrs. Krotz said.

Girl Scout Week started off with an Area Wide Council Meeting for adults Thursday night at the Lafayette Community Church at 8 p.m.

Troops and adults in the Diablo Valley Area Council joined more than a million and a quarter members of this organization celebrating the memory of Juliette Low, founder of the movement in the United States, thirty six years ago. Girl Scout week always includes October 31, the birthday of Mrs. Low.

One of the unique features at the Juliette Low Tea Wednesday was a special wishing well. Girl Scouts attending the fete brought a penny for each year of their age and dropped these coins into the well. Funds realized from the project are used to further international Scouting.

A very large group of girls from Lafayette, Orinda and Pleasant Hill turned out for the tea.

Local D.A.R. Meets Recently

State D.A.R. student loan funds are now available to students who are able to meet the requirements.

Those non-interest bearing loans are made over a three year period, $200 yearly. In exceptional cases the loan will begin in the freshman year and is available to those registered in either academic or vocational courses.

The Ann Loucks chapter, meeting recently in Alamo, voted to sponsor nine high schools in the annual Good Citizenship pilgrimage.

Mrs. F. H. Knobel and Mrs. Adele Pruitt of Lafayette are new members.

Ina M. Schmid Opens Real Estate Branch

The Ina M. Schmid real estate firm of Oakland is opening a branch office in Lafayette. Offices are located east of town, on Mt. Diablo Blvd. at Elizabeth Street. Lee Gorman has been selected manager of the new unit.

which took place in Town Hall. Girl Scouts, their leaders and Brownies were invited. A portion of the party — which was given in honor of the Girl Scouts' founder's birthday — was devoted to community singing.

Mrs. Albert B. Maas headed the committee handling the affair. Her assistants included Mrs. Esther Bacon, Mrs. Jean Henderson, Mrs. Beatrice Holloway, and Mrs. Dwight Baldwin.

Models Show Latest Styles At Tea Sponsored by 12-15 Club

Members of the 12-15 Club and their guests attended the first fashion show sponsored by the Club to raise money for its philanthropic fund last week.

The organization expressed appreciation to its many friends, guests, the shops showing the beautiful dresses and furs, to the beautiful merchants who made possible the success of the event, and to the Orinda Country Club for use of its lovely club rooms, Mrs. George Hickok said.

The first shop displaying latest fashions was the Woolsey Togs. Mrs. Ann Brown wore a flame red Jog Along Corduroy jacket and imported English flannel slacks in authentic Scotch Glen Plaid. Joan Woolsey wore a Norman Baker men's wear worsted skirt, cardigan of regal Scot purple and short sleeved pull over to match. Nancie Miller wore a wool box jacket in Sun Valley green, tweed wool skirt, flame red wesket of corduroy and a long sleeved mannish tailored Hendan blouse.

Sue Kilgo had on a Scotch plaid jacket and skirt to match. Mrs. Doris Clifford wore a weather proof coat of Robin Hood green over a knit soft classic dress by Sacony, also Robin Hood green. Then Mrs. Brown appeared again in a black coat by Juliard and underneath wore a classic suit dress.

The second shop, Hill'N Dale of Lafayette, showed Mrs. Frederick Confer in a black velvet skirt, long sleeved white blouse and red flannel wesket. Mrs. M. Gregg wore a gabardine suit of Fenwick toast color and carried a four skin natural Hudson Bay sable scarf and reappeared in a dyed Russian ermine coat from "Furs by Bruce" shop in Berkeley.

Mrs. Stewart Dinwiddie had on a Forstmann crepe dress of taupe color, wearing a South American Mink cape jacket and Mrs. Robert Bennett wore a black wool jersey dress with Chann gold on the sleeves, reappearing in a golden ermine coat. Last but not least Mrs. William V. Morgan wearing a two piece magenta crepe dress was stunning in her Natural Grey Persian Lamb coat.

Models from Emma Lee's Knit Shop of Lafayette wore hand-knitted dresses. Mrs. Stanley Dietrick wore a one piece spruce green dress and carried a four skin Natural Baum Martin scarf, reappearing later in a Thirteen Stripe Sheared Beaver coat. Mrs. Wm. M. Hull had on a one piece aqua knit and a clear tone Natural Russian Grey Squirrel Sling cape, reappearing in an Ermine Side Coat. Mrs. Roland Coad was charming in a one piece old red Coquet dress and a Natural Wild Mink coat.

The last shop was Virginia Hammond's. Kathy Young modeled a blanchigo (Cocoa) tissue faillie dress and a four skin Natural Stone Martin scarf. Pat White had on a black petalure crepe over which she wore a black Paris dyed Russian Ermine Sling cape. Anna Lee Cauble appeared in a black satin suit and small jewel studded beret, wearing a Four Skin Natural Stone Martin scarf and then modeled a broad tail type Persian Lamb jacket which was most becoming.

Letty Copland had on a flame colored long sleeved dinner dress with sunburst embroidery on the shoulder and for a wrap modeled a Natural Ranch Mink coat. Doris Hillman was charming in an emerald faille taffeta formal, wearing a China Mink Sling cape. OH's and Ah's were heard though when beautiful Jayne Duncan appeared in a shell pink slipper satin formal over which she wore a Natural Norwegian Blue Fox cape.

The tables were beautifully decorated in autumn colorings and the Maccarios, our new village florists are to be complimented on their lovely floral arrangements, Mrs. Hickok said. Karl E. Fite, who has recently taken over the electrical shop in the Village was indeed a great help in seeing that the public address system was in perfect order, which added to the afternoon's entertainment.

Miss Phyllis Hammond, the Commentator for the afternoon, gave a brief resume of the 12-15 Club's history and mentioned the six charter members, Mrs. Claude

Donaldson, Mrs. Leo Alexander, Mrs. A. Pasteris, Mrs. James Sullivan, Mrs. Warren Harrold and Mrs. A. W. Elkinton, who are still active today after fifteen years, as the Club was organized in 1933.

At the conclusion of the Fashion Show, Mary Dorr of Orinda presented three Hawaiian dances in costume. Mary spent a great deal of time in the Islands and dances with ease and grace equal to any of the native dancers.

Club to See Movie 'Human Growth'

The next regular meeting of the Orinda Mothers Club will be on Tuesday afternoon, November 16, at 2:30 at the school house. There will be a short business meeting followed by a showing of the motion picture "Human Growth."

This picture will be shown again in the evening for the benefit of the fathers. "Human Growth" is the picture which was written up in Life some months ago, and we are very fortunate to have this opportunity to see it. Child care will be provided for the afternoon meeting.

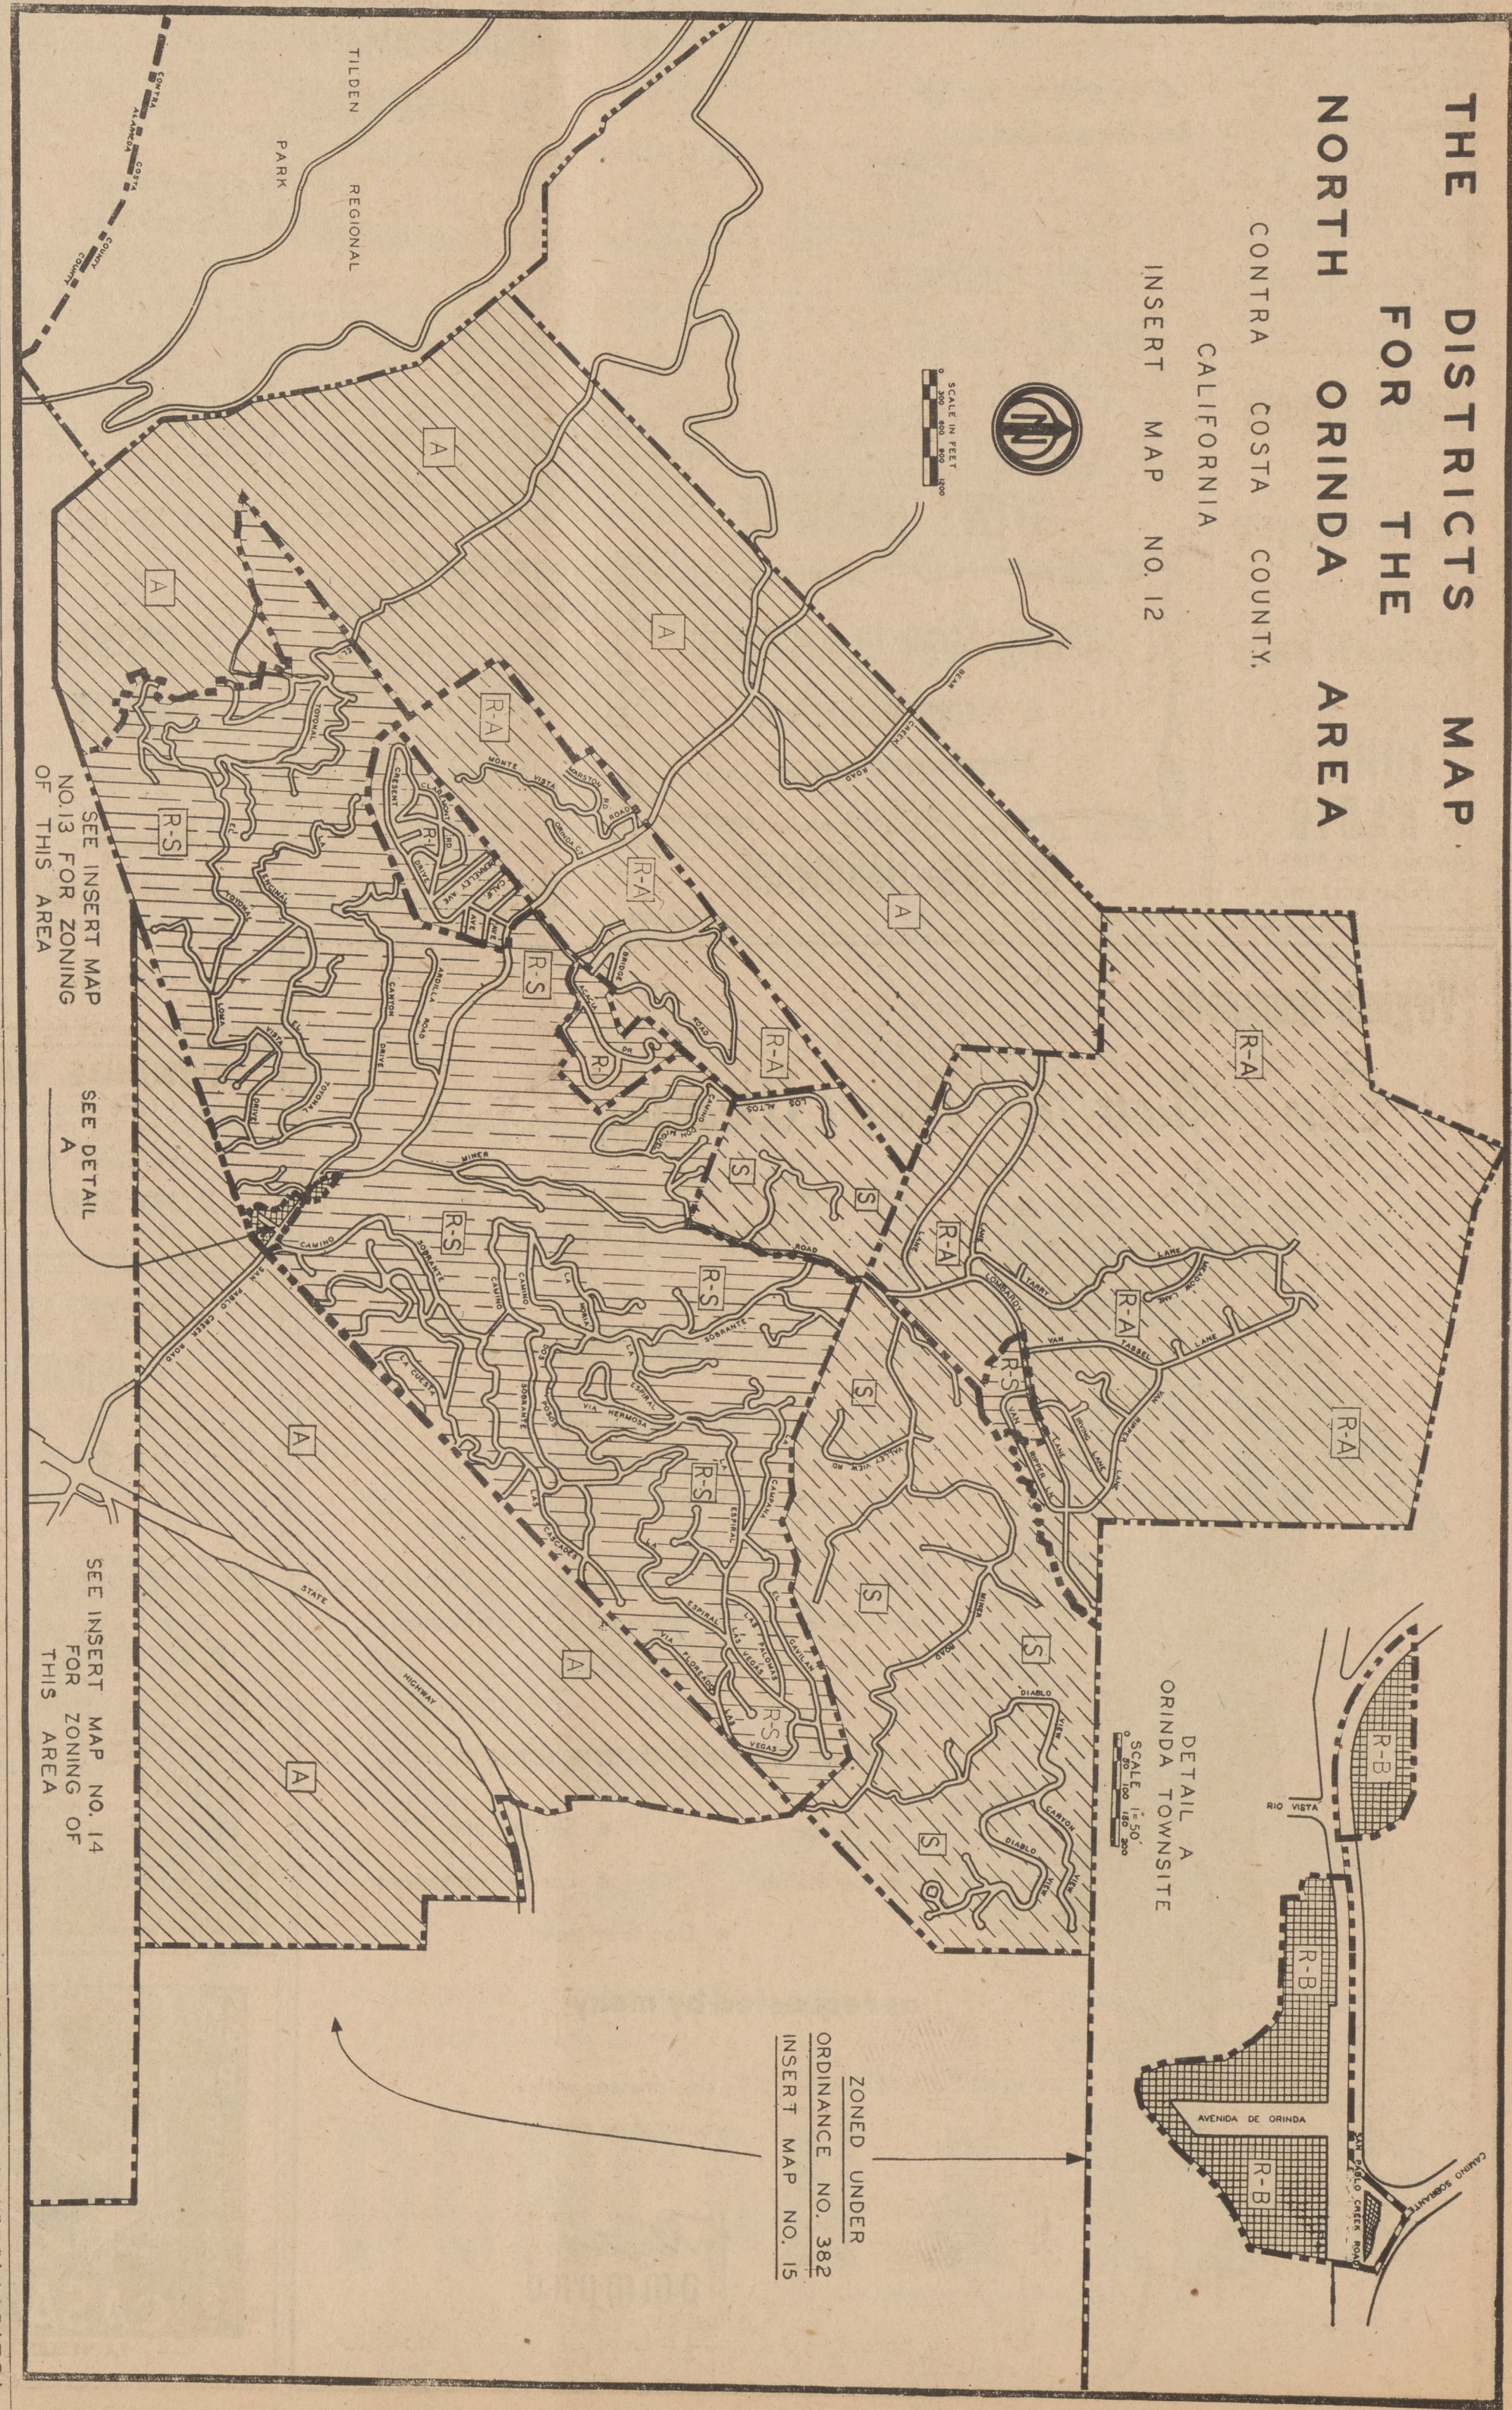

FAMILY FLYS EAST

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Krotz and sons Douglas and Robert, flew east to Chicago where Mr. Krotz was to attend a business conference. They will pick up a new car in Detroit and then motor through the New England states. They expect to be gone a month.

Insert Map No. 12, entitled "The Districts Map for the North Orinda Area". This map covers the district immediately north of the Orinda Crossroads bounded on the east by the Lafayette zoning map, more specifically the Charles Hill area, on the north by the Rheem property which includes all of the Sleepy Hollow subdivisions, on the west and the north-west by the Tenth Township and the Tilden Regional Park.

There are four types of residential zoning proposed in this section, R-1 which covers subdivisions of small lot size, R-S which covers most of the Hacienda del Orinda subdivisions, including the golf course and country club area, R-A which provides for a one half acre district, and the S which provides for a one acre minimum lot area. The S or Suburban district has been specifically requested for such subdivisions as Minerinda, Canyon Ranch, Orinda Uplands and Fairway Acres. The remaining land which is at the present time open agricultural land is zoned as Agricultural.

Insert Map No. 14, "The Districts Map for the South East Orinda Area" is bounded on the north by insert map No. 12, on the west by Insert Map No. 13, and on the south and east by the Orinda Union School District boundary line.

There is a small R-B district proposed at the Orinda Junction, the greater portion of which is on the south and west side of the Junction in the area surrounding the theater. All of the undeveloped land has been proposed as Agricultural. Oak Springs subdivision is proposed as R-1 district. Moraga Estates, Moraga Woodlands, Moraga Knolls and Lost Valley Estates are proposed as R-A.

Fleager Chosen Vice President

William Fleager was named vice-president of the Contra Costa County Trustees' Association recently when the board of directors elected new officers under the recently adopted constitution. Serving with Bernard Enes of Ambrose, president, are Fleager of Orinda, vice president; Ernest Digardi of Vine Hill treasurer, and Harold DeFraga, assistant county superintendent of schools, secretary.

The officers comprise the first complete set elected by the newly expanded organization. The association will step up its meetings to three or four a year instead of one. The board of directors meets each fourth Monday in Concord or Ambrose.

A general meeting is planned "about February," after the legislature adjourns, states DeFraga. Legislators will be invited to participate in a discussion of legislation.

Your Garden IN LAFAYETTE AND ORINDA

BY
CONSTANCE HANSEN

Those lucky owners of new homes who are just starting their landscaping now have everything in their favor, since this is the beginning of open season for planting or transplanting trees and shrubs.

Things set out now will have a head start, as there is still time for them to make a little root growth before the cold weather starts in earnest, and they will have the benefit of the fall rains.

When setting out shrubs be sure to dig a hole large enough to allow the roots to spread out. Loosen the soil in the bottom of the hole, and if the shrub is balled leave the burlap on, but untie the string. Set the shrub in the hole so it is about the same level as that at which it was growing in the nursery, and fill in around it with soil made loose by the addition of peat moss and coarse sand. After planting give it a thorough soaking by flooding several times. Shrubs purchased in cans should always be taken from the cans before planting.

NEW SHRUBS

Be careful that newly planted shrubs do not suffer for lack of water, especially if rain is scarce. Evergreens become established more readily if the foliage is sprinkled occasionally.

Bulbs for spring bloom may still be planted, especially tulips. There are all kinds of bulbs in the nurseries now — tulips, daffodils, ixias, freesias, hyacinths, lilies, ranunculas, anemones, and many more. You'll be sorry next spring if you let the fall planting season go by without adding a few to your garden.

They return so much enjoyment for so little work. The birds love young ranunculus shoots, and you can either plant them directly in the garden in a warm sunny bed, and protect with a covering of fine chicken wire, or start them in flats or pots and set out after they are up two or three inches, when they are too tough for the birds to enjoy.

Perennials may well be set out now too, and old clumps dug up and divided. All those through blooming can have the old stalks cut right down to the ground, and the old dead leaves pulled away.

GIVE LAWN CARE

Unless it's already been done this fall, the lawn will benefit greatly by a top dressing of peat moss and bone meal rubbed in with the back of a rake and then wet down. Keep out plenty of poison bait for slugs and snails, especially in the winter vegetable plot and around new perennials and annuals.

If the green beetles are spoiling the chrysanthemums, hand-picking into a small can of kerosene helps to lessen the damage. The younger members of the family might take over this chore if a bounty is offered.

From all advance reports the chrysanthemum show at Lake Merritt Park is bigger and better than ever this year, so don't forget to pay it a visit sometime before the end of the month. Mr. Jelenfy, one of the men who works with the chrysanthemums, told me not long ago that they would be at their best just about the time this column appears. If you're really a 'mum' enthusiast one visit won't be enough, since there is a series of bloom, and not all varieties are to be seen on any one day.

Dessert Bridge Planned to Raise Funds for Tuberculosis Sanatorium

A dessert bridge to raise Christmas funds for children in the County Tubercular Sanatorium will be held next Wednesday at 1 p.m. Mrs. George Neldam of Las Espiral has donated her home for the event and a few tables remain open for those desiring reservations.

Money realized from the party will purchase toys for these youngsters who receive excellent medical care but lack much in the way of toys or promise of a nice Christmas. Mrs. George Vurek of the Central Contra Costa County Tuberculosis Association reported this condition after a visit to the sanatorium. The women hope to raise enough money to buy at least one Christmas gift for each little patient.

Tables have already been reserved by Mesdames George Neldam, Ernest Spiegl, Helen Klemment, Matey, Dexter, Vera Ward, Eddie Garner, Anderson, Chantler, Jane Ward, John Dorr, Ben Randall and Ray Devin.

Committee in charge of the affair consists of Mrs. Peg Winters, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Bob Clough and Mrs. Vurek. Reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Clough by calling Orinda 7671.

Pilgrim Fellowship Enjoys Party

Thirty-six members of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Orinda Community Church and their guests combined fun and service in their Halloween celebration.

At seven o'clock they gathered at the church to organize their "New Style Trick or Treat." In seven cars they combed the community, ringing doorbells, collecting 12 boxes of clothes, soap, buttons, thread and other necessities for Hungarian relief. Their thanks go to the many in the community who so generously welcomed them at their homes.

At nine, they were the guests of Mrs. Melvin S. Jacobus at a party in the barn at their place in Orinda Highway.

Games and dancing were led by their president, Warren Everson. Chairman for the party planning was Roger Dunn, with Nancy Tinkham as head of the decoration committee and Gordon Hooper in charge of refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Everson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Twining were patrons and patronesses at the affair.

Members and their guests who attended the party were: Shirley MacAninch, Anne Summers, Toni West, Daryl Broderick, Carolyn Ward, Phyllis Pyle, Shirley Salvage, Pat Zamlock, Joan Gordon, Peggy Everest, Nancy Tinkham, Paula Corey, Karen Tynes, Eleanor Neldam, Robin Hooper, Joyce Amidsen, Eddie Ambrose, Keith Blakney, Mike Klement, John Bowron, Dick Boushay, Joe Pierson, Jack Stoffel, Jay Erickson, Jim D. Music Programs for Students Begin

The Orinda Mothers Club is presenting the first of a series of music programs for the school children on Wednesday.

May Petersen, lyric soprano, will be featured. Miss Petersen's father, Captain Petersen, left home at an early age to serve as a cadet on the old sailing ships, and this background plus her Danish ancestry has given Miss Petersen a wealth of Danish folk songs, and rollicking sea chants.

The program will be given for both morning and afternoon sessions.

Baby Shower Given For Mrs. Jim Lucas

Mrs. Jim Lucas, Senior, of 721 Orinda Highway gave a lovely baby shower for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jim Lucas, the former Babette Neldam.

Babette received many beautiful gifts which were arranged in a baby bassinette.

The flowers were very exquisitely arranged by Mrs. Maccario, wife of Mr. Maccario, the new florist in the Village. There were many compliments on the expert floral display of chrysanthemums, gladiolus and carnations.

Bobette Lucas is the former Bobette Neldam. She graduated from Acalanes High School and then attended Marin Junior College.
